

S.S.S. FOR SUMMER SKIN DISEASES

Smooth, healthy skins are a rarity in summer. Most persons are annoyed with pimples, boils, rashes or eruptions, while others suffer more severely with Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some kindred skin disease. All skin affections come from humors and acids in the circulation. The blood, as it circulates through the system, deposits these acids and humors in the sensitive membranous flesh which lies just beneath the outer skin or tissue covering the body. This acid matter causes inflammation and a discharge which breaks through the delicate cuticle, and skin diseases are the result. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be freed from all acids and humors, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. This great blood purifier goes down into the circulation and completely removes every particle of impurity, enriches the blood and purifies the blood and allows it to nourish, soothe, and soften the skin instead of irritating it with fiery acids and humors. ## SENSATION IN IDAHO MEETING

Preston, Idaho, June 25.—A sensation occurred at the forenoon session of the Stake conference held in the Stake house at Preston, on Sunday, the 19th, when Mr. George D. Castro, a resident of Preston, arose in the congregation and asked permission to make a statement. This being granted, he requested Mr. A. W. Hart to read his statement, which is as follows:

This is to certify that I am the author of a number of letters recently published in the Salt Lake Tribune, bearing dates of March 1st to June 18th, 1910, particular reference being made to those bearing date April, 1910; May 16th, 1910; June 8th, 1910, and June 10th, 1910, all of which are slanderous and untrue, and written for the purpose of injuring President Geo. C. Parkinson, who has never done me or mine the least injury or harm, but to the contrary has always been a true friend to me.

The only cause I am able to assign for such conduct on my part is the fact that I have been misled by others whose motives appear to have been no better than my own.

In thinking over the situation, and knowing my own heart, I have come to a realization of my true position and hereby declare that if the Lord will give me strength to be honorable and to carry out my present determination, I shall undertake to rectify the wrongs I have committed, and live such a life as shall entitle me to the respect and good will of all honorable people in this or any other community.

This statement is made after due thought and consideration, and I hereby beg President Parkinson's pardon.

This letter is addressed to President Parkinson and he is at liberty to make such use of it as shall tend to correct the evil.

(Signed) GEORGE D. CASTRO.
Written and signed in the presence of Joseph C. Nelson.

I wish to make the further statement that I furnished the material for letters written by Mr. C. E. Arney, the Idaho correspondent for the Salt Lake Tribune, in which reference was made to President Parkinson, and connecting him with the alleged Onida Irrigation district scandal. The information I gave was misleading and untrue and I regret having been mixed up in this scandalous affair. I make this statement, in my weak way, to attempt to right the wrong I have done.

(Signed) GEORGE D. CASTRO.
To the people of Onida Stake conference assembled.

Dear Brethren and Sisters:—By permission of the presiding brethren and this congregation, I desire to make a statement looking to the correction, as far as possible at this time, of the wrongs that I have done myself, my brethren, and the community in which I live.

That some of the information which Mr. C. E. Arney, special reporter for the Salt Lake Tribune from Idaho, gave concerning President George C. Parkinson and others was furnished by me, and the statements as they were published were discolored, distorted, misleading and vicious, containing more falsity than truth and in the whole malicious, especially mentioning being made of the Tribune statements in reference to the connection of George C. Parkinson, A. W. Hart, and others, with the affairs of the Onida Irrigation district.

2. That having carefully gone over the record of the proceedings of the court at Malad, and the records of the Onida Irrigation district, there is nothing to my mind that would or does place any reflection or dishonor upon the president or his associates; and it appears to me that they are completely exonerated.

3. The whirlwind of opposition and slanderous abuse and lies that have swept the country during the last few years and hurled against President George C. Parkinson, A. W. Hart, A. D. Henderson and others, have been due to nothing short of a conspiracy on the part of a few persons, whose motives appear to have been to tear down the influence of those men by scattering false reports and making vicious attacks against them at home and abroad without justification and wilfully and maliciously and with evil intent.

(Signed) GEORGE D. CASTRO.
Witnessed by Joseph C. Nelson.

After the above statement was read, Mr. Castro said:

"The statement which has been read in the hearing of this congregation was written by me, by my own free will and volition and without duress or persuasion on the part of any person. It is all true. I have been misled by others and know that I have done President Parkinson and the community a great injury, and I wish to be forgiven."

President Parkinson, who was presiding, addressing the congregation, said: "So far as I am concerned, I accept this apology and am willing to pardon." He then called upon the people to manifest their wishes in the matter and a unanimous vote was taken in favor of pardoning Brother Castro.

Of the general authorities present there were Elder Orson F. Whitney, of the Council of Twelve Apostles, and President B. H. Roberts of the First Council of Elders.

The stake presidency occupied their positions on the stand and the attendance was unusually large.

SULLIVAN AND CORBETT MAKE-UP

Pugs and Fight Fans Claim Credit for Reunion of the Two.

Thousands of People Visit the Training Camps of Jeffries and Johnson Daily.

RENO, Nevada, June 25.—Who brought John L. Sullivan and James J. Corbett together?

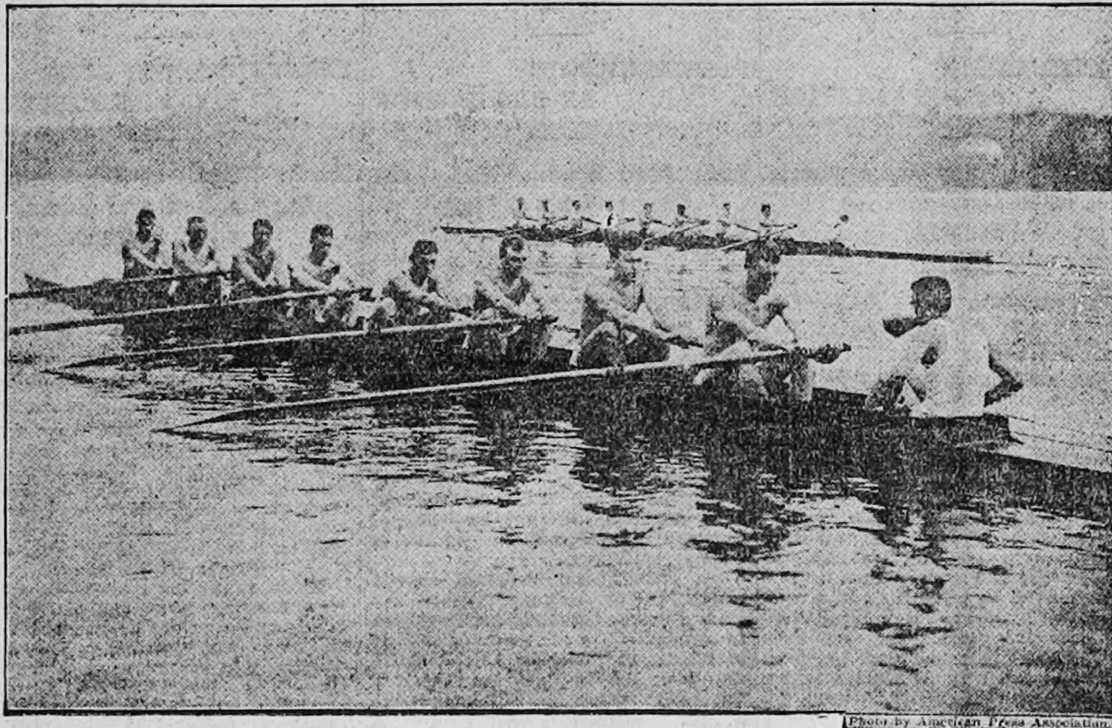

A veracious chorus, "I did!" from perhaps a dozen lusty throats would him. Then for a quarter of an hour they waxed reminiscent and talked about battles of by-gone days, after which with another handshake all around, Sullivan returned to Reno.

Crowds thronged both training camps today. Jeffries, after light work in the morning called for his fishing rod and, having secured a license started forth this afternoon to investigate the trout streams and lakes about Reno.

Jack Johnson worked hard. Several miles on the road and nine rounds of boxing in a broiling sun, not to speak of bag punching and medicine ball play, constituted the champions' initial grind in his new camp. He finished, breathing easily and apparently in fine fettle. The altitude did not seem to affect him in any way.

An accident marred his afternoon program. Driven by a terrific blow from the champion, the punching bag broke from its moorings and struck Ben Benjamin, a San Francisco sporting writer, full in the face.

Cornell Crew Wins the Inter-Collegiate Regatta greet that query were it propounded in the presence of all who tonight are posing as the original peacemakers.

Certainly a large can would be required to hold all the oil alleged to have been poured on the troubled waters. Even Jim Corbett, the man who jerked in the latch string of Moana Springs when John L. called last Thursday to see Jeffries, is trying to stave off a claim to the honor.

Tex Rickard and Joe Choynski are among the other insistent candidates for the title, but if the question was put to a vote there is little doubt that John L.'s old trainer Wm. Muldoon would be acclaimed the man chiefly responsible for re-uniting in the bonds of amity of the famous ex-champions. Sullivan's return visit to Jeffries' camp today and the friendly reception given both by Corbett and Jeffries was not unexpected.

"Gentleman Jim" was conveniently on hand when Sullivan's automobile drew up.

"I guess every thing is all right now," said the old fighter as he grasped Corbett's outstretched hand.

"Sure" was the quick reply. And as they stood chatting together a battery of cameras trained on the pair by newspaper photographers opened.

Muldoon, coming up, accompanied Corbett and Sullivan into the rubbing room. Jeffries was stretched on a slab. The big fellow held out his hand in welcome and John L. shook it warmly as he cried, "Hello young fellow. By heavens, you're looking great."

"And I'm feeling great" Jeff told breaking his glasses and cutting the flesh slightly over the eye. Johnson expressed much regret over the mishap.

Kaufman, George Cotton and Dave Mills were Johnson's sparring partners today and that trio is expected to work with the champion until next Saturday when it is said he will cease active training.

Preparations for the fight advanced steadily today. A large consignment of lumber came in from the mills at Verdi seven miles away, and considerable progress was made on the work of building the arena. There is no dearth of either labor or material here and as many workmen as can be used will be kept on the job until the huge structure is completed.

The contractors promised Rickard tonight to have the arena finished in every detail and ready for use by July 2. They say that, if necessary, the work probably could be accomplished in a day less than the time limit set.

Sheriff C. P. Ferrel announces the appointment of two local physicians to act for the county in examining the fight principals ten hours before they enter the ring, a requirement stipulated by the state law.

Ample police protection, it is said, will be afforded by the authorities from now until the fight is over and Reno recovers from its excitement.

Advice has been received that six members of the state police, an organization somewhat similar to the Arizona rangers will arrive from Carson City tomorrow in charge of Lieutenant Chas. They will work in conjunction with the sheriff's deputies and the city's force of patrolmen in preserving order until after the fourth of July.

According to Tex Rickard, seldom in the history of big fights in Nevada has so many precautions been taken to provide relief to persons likely to be injured or taken ill at the ring-side. But Reno intends to make all necessary provision for emergency cases.

A temporary receiving hospital will be set up near the site of the arena and the sheriff states he will appoint twelve of the city's leading physicians to serve under the banner of the Red Cross on the day of the battle. These physicians will be stationed at various parts of the arena. The city's new wagon will be pressed into service as an ambulance.

Jack Gleason's visit to Reno today was for the purpose of conferring with Rickard regarding the opening of a ticket office here and to inspect the work being done on the arena. Following his announcement that no certificates for seats would be redeemed after next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock Gleason was besieged with a storm of queries. He explained all who wished to cancel their certificates must notify the promoters San Francisco bank before the hour named, otherwise it would be inferred that redemption was not intended.

Owners of certificates may exchange them for arena seats either at the ticket office to be established here or in San Francisco.

Tom Jones, manager of Ad. Wolcott, has sent a message to the light-weight champion at his home in Michigan, instructing him to leave for Reno as soon as possible. Battling Nelson is also expected here for the fight and Jones will endeavor to arrange return match between the clever little fellows to be held on labor day.

"It all rests with Nelson," declares the champions' manager.

"If he wants to fight again, Ad will be only too glad to accommodate him."

Word was received at Jeffries' camp today that Frank Gotch, the wrestler, will leave Iowa for Reno tomorrow night.

CORNELL WINS THE REGATTA

Repeats Her Last Year's Victory in Winning Three Races.

Pennsylvania Makes a Close Finish—Columbia Third, Syracuse Fourth, Wisconsin Last.

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 25.—Cornell repeated her last year's feat of winning the three races of the inter-collegiate regatta today. The 'varsity eight-oared race was not finished until after darkness, which made it almost impossible to distinguish the crews.

Pennsylvania pressed Cornell closely throughout the race and was but half a length behind at the finish.
